

Weekly Peace Decree

The Soft Yes

I say yes — not from fear,
but from fullness.

When I rest, I hear what I really want.
And I choose from truth, not obligation.

I do not shrink to be received.
I do not hustle to be seen.

My softness is not a weakness —
it is a filter for alignment.

“I honor the yes that honors me.”

Created with love by Peace Practitioner